MRS. GAVIN is grateful to be able to share her love of art with the students at Mother Catherine Academy. She grew up in Carroll County, Maryland and has since lived around the world with her husband of 18 years, living in places as distant and exotic as Japan and Hawaii.

Amy holds a Bachelor of Science in Graphic Design from Drexel University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and a Master of Science in Art Education from University of Dayton in Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Gavin fell in love with teaching art during her family's tour in Japan. She has taught for four years -- and looks forward to many more.

Amy's husband is a rotary-wing test pilot in the United States Navy and she is a mother to two wonderful boys, ages 9 and 13. The Gavins also have a labradoodle named Juno, who loves long walks with her pack. Mrs. Gavin loves to run and to visit the beaches and mountains of North Carolina with her family. She feels very blessed to explore and create with the students of Mother Catherine Academy.
